We are looking for a small group who can help the church shape its celebrations in 2025.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Centennial Celebrations Committee (4 vacancies)

The Centennial Celebrations Committee will assist in architecting the scope of the denominational celebration for the 100th Anniversary of the United Church of Canada in 2025. This committee will work in collaboration with General Council Staff to identify a variety of opportunities and methods to celebrate this anniversary. For more information about this posting, click here.

The United Church is committed to working towards the full participation of people with disabilities, those who identify as Indigenous, racialized, or Francophone, and those from other marginalized communities. Individuals with these identities and experiences are encouraged to express interest. Attention will also be given to including younger leadership and the migrant voice within the church.

The deadline for expression of interest is Wednesday, September 15, 2021. To nominate or express interest in this vacancy, please use this online form:
