acknowledge the Territory where you are, Treaty number/description, Indigenous authors, musicians, artists or something you've learned since last we met.

A Meeting Workbook/Agenda and the Zoom link will be forthcoming.

Meeting highlights include: ...listening to Indigenous Voices from Walpole Island and Delaware First Nation, Moraviantown; acknowledging the Fairfield Museum land transfer; in memoriam/community of faith changes; honouring retirees; hearing from our Candidate for Commissioning; covenanting with the LLWLs, hearing about the camps; hearing reports from the three Commissions; UPRC presentation; Hope Council presentation; GC recommended Mission and Vision statement; 2022 Budget, GC 44 proposals, if any; Community building borne out of our time together in June and checking in with how you as a community of faith are doing; worship, theological/equity reflection.... All that and more!!!!

I hope you know that you and your community of faith are important members of the team ministry that I like to call Antler River Watershed Region United Church. It takes all of us to share our gifts to accomplish the mission of the church. Spirit God: be our breath, be our song. (MV 150)

Looking forward to seeing you at the ARWR Fall meeting! In the meantime, Keep Calm and Rock On!

Please RSVP via the registration link below.

Regional Council Representatives

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Commissions and the Executive are elected in the spring meeting.

Thanks also to the many members of the regional council acting as Pastoral Charge Supervisors, Pastoral Relations Liaisons, United Fresh Start Facilitators, Licensed Lay Worship Leader Committee members, regional council United Church Women and members of networks supporting faith formation and justice work such as right relations networks and UNJPPI among others.

For regional council representatives who are not yet connected to the work of the regional council, please consider joining the resource pool for one of the Commissions. These are time-limited, specific task roles. Some of the assistance Commissions could use is outlined below:

Covenant Commission

Pastoral Charge Supervisors

Supporting a Community of Faith with its Living Faith Story

Assisting a Community of Faith with property transactions

Accompanying and supporting Communities of Faith during amalgamations and disbanding

Human Resources Commission

Pastoral Relations Liaison (training required)

United Fresh Start Facilitators (training required)

Licensed Lay Worship Leader Committee

Mission and Discipleship Commission

Faith Formation networks and events

Justice networks and events

Right relations networks and events

Stewardship events

We are developing plans for the training and support of volunteers in these roles.

Thank you for considering how you might be involved.
